

House Resolution No. 4357

Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives feel it is altogether fitting and proper to pause from time to time to recognize individuals and organizations that have contributed to the welfare of this great state and its citizens; and

Whereas, the members now pause to recognize Melva Wolfsberger, who will celebrate her one hundredth birthday on August 9, 2007, surrounded by family and friends; and

Whereas, Melva Wolfsberger was born on August 12, 1907, and today she is the beloved wife of Karl F. Wolfsberger, to whom she has been married for sixty-six happy years, and together they live in Webster Groves, Missouri; and

Whereas, Melva and Karl Wolfsberger anticipate the arrival of their children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren, who now live in Wisconsin, a few days prior to the August 9 celebration:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-fourth General Assembly, join to extend our sincerest congratulations to Melva Wolfsberger on the illustrious occasion of her one hundredth birthday with our very best wishes for many more happy years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Melva M. Wolfsberger as a measure of our esteem.
